

Compliance 360's Customer Wins Best Compliance Practices Award for 2006

Health Care Service Corporation (HCSC) wins Regulatory Oversight Award from Health Ethics Trust (HET)

Atlanta, GA. – December 14, 2006 – Compliance 360, a provider of governance, risk and compliance management software, is pleased to announce that Health Care Service Corporation (HCSC) recently received a Best Practices award by Health Ethics Trust (HET). HCSC, a Compliance 360 customer, was presented with their award named the “Regulatory Oversight Office Award” during the annual Healthcare Best Compliance Practices Forum ceremony held in Alexandria, Virginia.

The Health Ethics Trust (HET) is a division of the Council of Ethical Organizations and a non-profit organization working with healthcare industry since 1980 on practical approaches to compliance issues. The awards given by this committee are competitive and based on a peer review process that has evolved over the past 11 years. Trust President Mark Pastin, Ph.D. commented, “These are the only true industry recognition awards for integrity and compliance practices. The organizations that have won awards have incredible compliance track records.”

“We are proud to be associated with HCSC and their leadership in the health insurance industry,” stated Steve McGraw, president and chief executive officer, Compliance 360, Inc. “We applaud their recent success and look forward to assisting them as they continue their excellence.”
