"In response to requests from the healthcare provider community, we mobilized rapidly last year to design and deliver a comprehensive solution for managing the growing threat of medical claims audits and denials," said Steve McGraw, president and CEO of Compliance 360. "Building on our deep experience in healthcare and the proven capabilities of the Compliance 360 GRC system, we're now providing one of the industry's leading claims audit solutions. We attribute the industry's rapid adoption of the Compliance 360 Claims Auditor to our unique automated workflow that enables the system to serve as a 'Virtual Audit Coordinator', automating the assignment of responsibilities and ensuring that critical due dates are not missed. Our customers also value our broad platform and the option to expand into a comprehensive risk management solution that encompasses the Claims Auditor. We are proud to help these progressive healthcare providers and very proud of the early success that many are already achieving."
